

Equity Release

Equity Release

This work is Solicitor led by an experienced Solicitor in this field. We ensure that the clients fully understand the “product” they have been sold.

We liaise with the Brokers who provide advice on the schemes available and capital but always produce detailed written advice to clients who are seen personally by a Solicitor to sign off the legal documents.

We are seeing an increase in this type of work as clients are living longer and are sometimes let down by their expectation of pension income and have to release equity, for a variety of reasons.
