

Intellectual Property Disputes

Intellectual property covers a wide range of issues including:

- Business names, brand and logos
- Design of products, artistic works and software
- Written documents, audio and video

Intellectual property can be very valuable and must be protected from infringement. Disputes need swift and commercial action, sometimes requiring an injunction at court.

It is important to act quickly, whether to bring a claim or responding to a claim as disputes and escalates rapidly.

We can advise you on the options and costs involved, to best protect your position.
